NEW NOMINATIONS ARE ON FILE

REPUBLICAN TICKET ACCEPTED Y ELECTIONS BUREAU.

If Grout Goes to Law It Will Probably Be Today He Flies to the Typewriter and Intimates That He Will Go the Thole Tammany Hog-Fornes Thinks.

Certificates of the nomination of Fred eric W. Hinrichs for Comptroller and Edward J. McGuire for President of the Board of Aldermen were filed with the Board of Elections at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Secretary Manchester of the Republican convention, who delivered the certificate's to John R. Voorhis, president of the board, and with them a copy of the minutes of the two conventions, to which Chairman Woodruff and the other officers of the convention had certified. The documentarwere a scepted by the board.

Mr. Grout made no move yesterday to stay the Board of Elections. The time for the filing of city nominations expires tonight. Mr. Grout indicated last night that if he took any le val proceedings it would be done to-day.

GROUT TO STUMP AGAINST LOW. Mr. Grout had a talk yesterday at his office with President Fornes of the Board of Aldermen. Afterward Mr. Grout said: The machines have taken another roll, Republican in the lead. Six years ago Citizens' Union was anti-Platt as well as arti-Tammany throughout the whole campeign. Now it is under Platt's control. But the people carr unmake machines and they can vote as the please, no matter how machines make up the ballots. I shall fight this campaign through to the end, sustained through it, as I have been during the past formatch, by the conviction that I am right. I shall appeal to the people for fair play and for a judgment reade after a full hearing, not closed now, but a month hence, on election day. All parties, all newspapers agree that I have been an horest and efficient Comptroller. I shall stand for reelection on that record, which all have a pproved. Thousands of people have had personal experience of my conduct of my official business and know how I have transacted it. If I be reelected, I shall perform my duties in the same manner in which I have heretofore performed them, no matter who be the Mayor or commissioners. I skyll be as independent in the future as in the past and as firm to withstand any pressure. If the people, knowing my record, do not wish a Comptroller such as I have been, let them vote against me. campaign. Now it is under Platt's con-

WILL "APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE."

I was originally made a candidate against my wish. Before I went away on my vacation I made known to some fusion managers the very details of my private business affairs which made me unwilling to continue in office. Nevertheless, my renomination was forced by them in my absence. I accepted at Mr. Low's personal request and in spite of every other inducement and argument. Then I was offered an indorsement by the Democratic party. I did not seek it. I did not bargain, deal or dieker for it. I was not bought, sold or gagged. I made no concealment of my belief that, if taken sanely by the fusionists, such indorsemen would help Mr. Low. And I am abused, outraged, expelled. Why? Because I say that the campuign should be fought by arkument, by proofs, by appeals to reason, not by dequinclation, bitter words and appeals to passion. I shall appeal to the people to say whether Mir. Low ought not to have been as toyal stad unselfish to me as I have been to him. It shall ask whether he can rightfully take the advantage gained by the partial indorsement of the administration and then repudiate Mr. Fornes and myself. I shall ask them whether he ought to be relected upon a record to which I have contributed and I be rejected. I shall ask every taxpayer whose bill this year is reduced to remember that it would not have been less if I had not been Comptroller.

"EUNCH KAW AND MOB RULE." "LYNCH LAW AND MOB RULE."

As a Democrat I shall ask the Democrats of this city to notice how this situation has been made at the direction of Platt and his intimates, and to say whether this Democratic city shall be thus turned over to Platt. I believe that municipal business should be managed upon its merits. I have so conducted If and will so continue if reejected. The position of the Republican machinists and of Mr. Cutting has become the acme of partisagehip. And finally, I shall appeal to all fair minded people to say whether a man whom they have known to be honest shall be destroyed by the species of lynch law and mob rule which has prevailed this fortnight past.

BR. FORNES RELIEVES HIS MIND.
President Fornes made this statement: Tresucent Fornes macke this statement:
The political situation in our city to-day is one of absolute amazement to me at the unjust and unwarranted criticisms which have been visited upon Mr. Grout and myself from certain quarters because of the position
we have taken.

we have maken.

I never sought a nomination to public office, but two years ago a reepted one to the office of President of the Board of Aldermen. office, but two years ago a scepted one to the office of President of the Beard of Aldermen upon the principle of non-partisanship in municipal government. I have never had any thought since entering upon the discharge of my duties except that of acting at all times and under all corrittons in absolute harmony with that principle.

That my course was not open to serious criticism seems to have been the conclusion a few days ago when the fusion parties tendered me a renomination, which I accepted.

I was, of course, deeply grateful for the recognition accorded me by that renomination, but on three previous occasions I suggested the withdrawal of my name from the fusion ticket if a more acceptable candidated sould be decided upon. Now, because I consented to have my candidecy indersed by the regular Democratic organization, I am declared unworthy of going before the electorie upon the fusion ticket—and by whom? By Mr. Bruce, recently from Delaware county and now chairman of the Republican county committee; by 'Mr. Platt, the easy boss of the Republican party, and whose official life has been conspicuous chefty for his successful brokerage in public offices in order that his henchmen might strengthen him in the primary contests of the Republican party; by Mr. Odell, a partisan Republican Governor, who, previous to his election to that exalted office, was distinguished chiefly for his ability to control legislation through the unsavory meshes of the industry and whom the people of this city repudiated at the last election by the most overwhelming defeat that any candidate for public office ever suffered at its hands. These are the men and these are the forces which have cast a blight over the cause of fusion and struck the deadliest blow at non-partisan municipal government which it has ever received.

REPUBLICAN BANNER UP. Battle Against Return of Tammany Graft Declared On.

President Bruce of the Republican county committee had a banner out by 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at 1 Madison avenue. It carries the names of Hinrichs and McGuire. Mr. Bruce said:

The anti-Tammany city ticket is now com the campaign is open, the issue clearly defined and there can be no doubt of the result at the polls. The mistakes have been eliminated and every friend and supporter of clean; honest and high class city government is now united and aggressive in the fight to prevent a return to power of the combination for personal gain known as Tammany Hall.

Tammany Hall.

Croker from England and Murphy from the "gas house district" are in the order named in command of the Tammany forces, whose sole object is personal gain.

The same unreformed Tammany is crying out for a wide open town. New York is a civilized, moral city and will never again be open for the entrance of Tammany "graft," yes and corruption.

be open for the entrance of Tainham grate, vice and corruption.

We shall fight this campaign on the only issue before the people—the continuance of good city government. Tammany is the common enemy, and against Tammany we shall wage war to the end.

The anti-Tammany forces enter the campaign confident of victory.

THEY STAND FOR CIVIC HONESTY.

Therefore Support Low, Hinrichs and McGuire, Advises Business Men's League.

The Business Men's Municipal Association, Francis B. Thurber, president, at a meeting held at 90 West Broadway, yesterday, resolved that it is the duty of citizens who believe that a city should be run on Lonest business principles without regard to politics, to avail themselves of the opportunity to support the non-partisan ticket headed by Low, Hinrichs and McGuire, and that while Grout and Fornes are good men, it is impossible for them to ride two horses at the same time, hence their names were rightly taken off the fusion ticket.

LEST-WE-FORGET CARDS. Reminders in the Elevated Trains of Life

Under Tammany. Extracts from the writings and lecture of Jacob A. Riis were posted in 1,500 elevated railroad cars yesterday by the Republican county committee. New cards will be put out each week. Some of the quotations used are these:

quotations used are these:

The Low administration has driven prostitution from the tenements and has sent the infarrous cadets to jail.

Will you vote to restore them?

The Low administration has protected the poor man's daughter. Tammany traded in her virtue—sold her in slavery, and rattled with a laugh the brass checks that paid for her honor and her life.

Tammany fed the poor in the almshouse on dry bread and sea water. The Low administration clothes and feeds them well.

The Low administration has made parks and playgrounds for the people—Tammany refused them. Builds tenements fit to live in. Gives the man without a pull a show.

The Low administration wiped out the smallpox in six months. It took the pushcart blackmais re by the throat. None but a fool now pays, for protection.

The Low administration killed the foul conspiracy against the homes of the poor. It has saved 4,000 tenement babes a year from the undertaker.

SOUARE ISSUE IN TROY.

Ex-Senator Murnhy Meets Ex-Gov. Black's

Bid for the Votes of Catholic Democrats. TROY, Oct. 8.-In the Democratic city convention held to-night former United States Senator Murphy met squarely the issue raised by ex-Gov. Black in the Republican city convention. By nominating Jarvis P. O'Brien, brother of the Secretary of State, Mr. Black made a bid for the votes of Catholic Democrats. Mr. Murphy named as his candidate for Mayor Joseph F. Hogan who, it is expected, will hold every Democrat of Catholic faith to his party. A sharp and uncertain contest is assured. It means much to both leaders.

BREAK WITH M'LAUGHLIN HAS BEEN EXPECTED LONG.

Sheviln, Shea, York and Other Auction Room Favorites Had More Influence for Obtaining Patronage-Talk of a Third Ticket With Low at the Head.

Although the direct break between Hugh McLaughlin, chief manager of the Kings County Democracy, and Senator P. H. McCarren, the potent leader of the Democratic hosts in the Fourteenth Assembly district, has come over the Grout-Fornes entanglement in the present campaign, persons familiar with the inner workings of the Willoughby street machine have known that for some years past they have had serious differences in regard to party policies, and that sooner or later a feud was inevitable.

Although he wielded more influence as a district leader than probably any other two of McLaughlin's lieutenants combined, McCarren has found that frequently in the naming of candidates for important and lucrative offices, and in the distribution of patronage, his influence did not equal that of James Shevlin, John L. Shea, Bernard J. York and other favorites of the auction room, who had not been obliged, as he had, to fight their way step by step up the politica adder. Through all these differences McCarren's personal devotion and friendship for the aged chief remained, and their present clash would probably have been averted had it not been for their sharp divergence of opinion on the indorsement of Grout and Fornes. It was not until McCarren summoned his stalwart Democratic warriors in the Fourteenth Assembly district to the Seymour Club, on Wednesday night, and whipped them to a man into support of the whole ticket, regardless of McLaughbill's protest and the Ciceronian thunder-bolts of Martin W. Littleton, that it was fully realized that the Kings County Democ-racy was confronted with one of the most serious factional fights in its history. It was the understanding on all sides yester-day that the battle royal was on for good was the understanding on all adds yester-day that the battle royal was on for good and that no matter what the result of the election might be Mr. McLaughlin would have to demolish the political props on which the Hon. Patrick Henry McCarren has stood so firmly for a quarter of a century as he did in the case of ex-Senator Michael J. Coffey, the Red Hook statesman, or surrender some of his political laurels.

So sharply are the lines drawn between McLaughlin and McCarren that no companying its regranded as prossible, although McLaughlin and McCarren that no compromise is regarded as possible, although active personal hostilities may be deferred until after Nov. 3. The first real opportunity for a trial of strength will come in March, when the primaries will be held to start the Presidential campaign machinery. Within the next week or so, however, it is expected that five or six other district it is expected that five or six other district leaders in addition to Congressman Lindsay will takes sides with McCarren on the Grout-

The Seymour Club demonstration had no effect whatever in diverting Mr. McLaugh-lin from his purpose to force the organization to oppose Grout and Fornes to the bitter end, and to regard the supporters of bitter end, and to regard the supporters of these candidates as enemies of the Kings County Democracy and allies of Tammany. It was in this parable that Mr. McLaughlin paid his respects to Senator McCarren: "You have heard of a pig being caught in the fence and squealing. Two pigs make more noise than one, and I am not reing to make any noise about this. Pergoing to make any noise about this. Per-haps you have also heard of those big New-foundland dogs which are fed by the chil-dred, but which, when they do not get what they want, bite the hand that has fed

James Shevlin after a talk about some white mice," who in his naval days used to go from one mees to another trying to break them up and then when they got ashore would complain of their treatment,

"As to Senator McCarren, he has always he has disagreed with the party he has tried to justify his position. It was on his motion that the action of the executive committee on this question was made uranimous. If he wants to be a political acrobat, as some other men have been re-cently, we cannot help that, and the or-ganization cannot be blamed for it. His Seymour Club meeting last night was in reality a packed jury; and you know what to expect from that."

mroe County Democrats Give Strong ROCHESTER, Oct. 8.-At the Democratic county convention this afternoon resolutions against the barge canal proposition were adopted. These were the reasons stated in the resolutions: First-Because it is the most idiotic propo sition that was ever submitted to an intelli gent people.

Second—Because the present capacity of the canal is far in excess of the demand made upon it. Third-Because the proposed canal enlarge ment, like nearly all other public jobs, would probably cost far more than the original appropriation, probably not less than $300,-

Fourth-Because bonding the State for this vast sum would be imposing a gigantic and needless burden upon the present and several succeeding generations without any Fifth-Because an enlarged or reconstructed anal would benefit the Western States rather than the State of New York, and if it is to be built at all the expense should be borne by the General Government. Resolved. That for the reasons set forth above we pledge ourselves to do whatever we can to defeat the proposition and invite roters of all political parties to assist us at the ballot box.

EASY ON CITY HALL COPS. They Get Off With Small Pines on Pipe and Davis's Charges.

Yesterday was another big trial day t Police Headquarters. Not only all the Deputy Commissioners heard evidence, but Commissioner Greene was forced to preside in one case in which all three of his deputies were complainants.

This was the case of Policeman Stephen S. Walsh of the Mercer street station, who came out of the side door of a saloon at Bond and Elm streets last Friday afternoon and almost bumped into the three deputies. They testified that the policeman had only one glove on and was wiping his mouth with the other. He was fined three days' pay. Walsh has been on the force one month.

Deputy Commissioner Ebstein then relieved Gen. Greene and heard cases in which the two other deputies, Piper and Davis, were the complainants. Among them were those of the men at the City Hall station, who were found taking life easy one night

SAFE BLOWN OPEN AND ROBBED. Burglars Do the Job Close to Where Hundreds of Men Are at Work.

BUFFALO, Oct. 8 .- Safe robbers did a successful job early this morning at the Iron and Steel Company's plant near North Tonawanda. Close to scores of workmen, the robbers worked unmolested all night and got $500 in cash and negotiable paper worth thousands of dollars.

An entrance was effected through a window of the office. Powerful explosives were used on the vault door, and when this was blown off its hinges and the safe ex-posed it, too, was drilled and blown open. With their spoils hidden about them the burglars departed unmolested.

SULZBERGER'S STRAIGHT TALK

can We Turn the City Over to the Gang Again New That We Knew the Difference? He Asks-Speeches at the Notification of Two of the Fusion Candidates.

Ralph Trautmann and Cyrus L. Sulzberger, ne fusion candidates for Sheriff and President of the borough of Manhattan, were notified at the Savoy Hotel yesterday afternoon by committees representing the Republican convention, the Citizens' Union and the German American Municipal League. Speaking for the Citizens' Union Cyrus C.

Miller said that the nomination of such a man as Mr. Trautmann, who was not prominent politically, would have been impossible twenty-five years ago or even ten years ago. It was as a business man that he had been chosen, and the party that he represented was looking to him to clean the Sheriff's office.

"We know," said Mr. Miller, "of the attach ment of the Germans for you, but we hop that when you get into office you won't have attachments for the Germans." Abraham Gruber said he believed that Mr. Trautmann would be elected by a larger majority than his most sanguine friends predicted and that he would have the sup port of every anti-Tammany organization. Mr. Trautmann made a short speech in reply and said: "This campaign is not a battle of tarif against free trade nor gold against silver. This is a fight of virtue against vice, clean liness against filth, manliness against depravity, and honesty against graft. For that reason I could not resist your offer, and I think it is your honest belief that every good citizen on election day will show that he is with us and with our principles."

that he is with us and with our principles."
[Applause.]

Julius Cohen, for the Citizens' Union, notified Mr. Suisberger, who he said could not have secured such a nomination but for that organization.

"The Republican organization," he said, "certainly would not have named you owing to your independence, and it is a vindication of the Citizens' Union that they have succeeded in convincing those now with them that it is their duty to support you. You are the concrete illustration of the type of man who will give us a business administration." istration. Charles E. Lexow said for the Republicans:
"As one of that great party which always sinks individuality in movements such as this, no matter how it hurts I pledge you its support from top to bottom."

Mr. Sulzberger said in reply that if elected ne would conduct the business of Borough President on the principles that he had conducted his own business on, and added that it would be impossible for him to conduct the office on anything but a non-partisan basis. He said:

"I want to say a word to my Republican friends. I know that they do not desire nor expect that, so far as national policies nor expect that, so far as national policies go or the next election is concerned, I will abate one jot or tittle my support of the principles of the party to which I belong. But that party in New York has been so degraded that if you Republicans think it a reproach, think what it is to us that the expression of a party's principles should be made through a gang which no adjective can describe. While for you this is an attempt to clean our city, it is for us, and not for you, an attempt to redeem our party. not for you, an attempt to redeem our party. not for you, an attempt to redeem our party.
Does our great city stand a chance of having these people put back now that we know the difference? It is incomprehensible that the voters of New York, naving experienced Van Wyck on the one hand and Low on the other, can do such a thing."

"Poker is the national game. To eliminate it is impossible. No man feels that his honor is at stake when he squeals on a crooked game, but a straight game of poker played by adults in private rooms for moderate stakes is a different proposition.

"It does not need police protection. It has the protection of its patrons. Whether a comparis justified in using questionable. an officer is justified in using questionable methods to reach a place like this is an open question.

"Like the social evil, gambling is always with us, but it must not go unrestrained. It is the duty of a chief to know all the gamblers in his city, if the size of the city will permit. He cannot tell them that he cannot tell them that he cannot tell them. will permit. He cannot tell them that he will permit certain games. That would stultify him and make him liable to arrest and conviction. But he can tell them that he will use every means to put down crooked games—games run where liquor is sold and where boys and people not able to plantake.

In this way an officer can protect himself and his force from the attacks of those re-formers whose intentions are better than their judgment."
Supt. Bull of Buffalo was elected president of the association, which will meet in Binghamton next year.

THE PROFESSOR IN POLITICS.

DR. NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER RELATES HIS EXPERIENCES.

His Story of the Twentieth District's Inquiry, "Who Is He Anyway"? an Incident of the Opening of Columbia's New Clubhouse Stunts Done There. The new Columbia University clubhouse was opened last night. It is at 15 East Twenty-sixth street, facing Madison square. The old club was in West Thirty-sixth street. The ceremonies at the opening last night were quite simple. Dean Van Amringe presided. Speeches were made by President Nicholas Murray Butler, Coach W. H. Morley and Justice Willard Bartlett of the Supreme Court. President Butler said:

"Nothing probably will be more interesting to a set of young fellows like you who are here than a tale of my experiences as a politician. Perhaps my friends in the club haven't noticed it, but I learned several weeks ago, according to the newspapers, and some amateur politicians in the Twentieth Assembly district, where I live, that I had not only been nominated for Alderman, but had been elected, slightly in advance of the official election.

"I was sitting back in my study one even-ing trying to cultivate the proper Aldermanic dignity in anticipation of my con-firmation by the voters, when a political friend in the district called me up and in formed me that the convention had adjourned and that a committee of three had been appointed to find out who Nicholas Murray Butler was, anyway."

After the speeches it was announced that there would be a few stunticians intro-duced. There were headed by one Tom Safford, who gave his tragic and justly celebrated musical poem, "The Jabberwok" After this the other stunticians got busy. DR. DAVID FRANKLIN DEAD. He Put Off Undergoing an Operation for Hanvy's First Wife, May Yale, Says She Never Heard He Had Divorced Her. Louis A. Hanvy, a vaudeville actor, was arraigned yesterday in the Jefferson Market court, charged with bigamy by Mary Yale, who says she is his first wife. Hanvy declared that he had married May Yale in November, 1899, but had obtained a decrea in December, 1901, in Cincinnati, Ohio. A little later he was married again by Munidpal Court Justice Clancy of Butte, Mon.

May Yale, testified that she left Hanvy shortly after their marriage because of cruel treatment, and that when she re-turned to him, the following year, he deserted her. She declared she never heard of the divorce before. Hanvy's counsel asked for a postponement of the hearing until he could obtain the divorce papers, which are in Hanvy's trunk in Muncie, Ind., and Magistrate Pool set it down for next Monday.

PUBLICATIONS.

Harvesters Aubrey Lanston. (Russell Imprint.)

> A story of thrilling incident and daring originality. Life at the Court of George III. had few points in its favor, and the beautiful Lady Bascombe found this out when her love for her husband brought her to London and she was unfortunate enough to win the attention of the profligate Prince. Her husband's unprecedented assault upon His Highness is a startling climax. The author is an authority on this era, and he has achieved a delightful romance as well.
